

Economic sectoral studies in Senegal

Date: 2005-2006

Location: Senegal

Funding source: Canarian Chamber of Commerce / ÁfricaInfomarket

Companies Involved: Canaest, S.L

Description of Work:

Upon request of Africa Infomarket, two local technicians usual collaborators de Canaest-Consulting and with the support of a member of the permanent team, various studies were made throughout 2005 and 2006 in Senegal about the following topics: real state market, tourism, fisheries, construction, food sector, new technologies, renewable energy and solid waste.

The content of the aforementioned studies included the general investment country context, obstacles, legal and economic context, sector description, business opportunities and Spanish enterprises position in Senegal.