

Participation in the project “ Preliminary actions for the feasibility study, diffusion and launch of activities of fishing-tourism activities in the communities of Arguineguín and Mogán in Gran Canaria

Date: 2007-2008

Location: Gran Canaria

Funding source: Cabildo of Gran Canaria

Companies Involved: Canarian Institute of Marine Sciences and Canaest, S.L.

Description

The main goal was making a preliminary feasibility analysis regarding the possible development of fishing- tourism activities by artisanal fishermen of Gran Canaria.

The projects is composed of 4 phases or activities

- A workshop on awareness of fishing-tourism
- An inventory of eco-tourism resources in fisheries artisanal sector for fishing-tourism in Gran Canaria
- A technique feasibility study about the activities related to fishing-tourism as new income sources for fishing communities of Arguineguín and Mogán
- A socio-economic study on the necessary adaptations for effective realisation of fishing-tourism activities in fisheries sector in Gran Canaria.